The Church

You can't confuse me
You can't take me on as you are
You don't dare refuse me
'cause I know where in the garden you buried your star

Slow it down, low down
You better break it up
No certainty attached
Slow it down, low down
No certainty attached

Crows in the armor
You feel tiny pangs of pain
I thought you were the cat's pajamas
Is there something here should be explained

Slow it down, low down
You better take it off
No certainty attached
Slow it down, low down
No certainty attached

Girls in the windows
Windows in the houses in the streets
Street street streets in the city
City in the country from the clouds

Slow it down, low down
You better break it up
No certainty attached
Slow it down, low down
No certainty attached

Slow it down, low down
Slow it down, low down

We're gonna rise above it all
We're gonna pull the curtain back
We're gonna drop right out the sky
We're gonna...
