Tracks in the Snow

The Civil Wars

Whoa, I hear the quiet now Of paper airplanes falling down Whoa, the branches of every tree Bend like a cathedral over me

Down where the river bends, everyone's waiting
But that's not the reason I'm making these tracks in the snow
There's a box in my hands as I go
Wrapped up in scarlet and gold
For you

Whoa, there's a choir upon the wind Singing old familiar hymns And my ears they're playing tricks on me I can almost hear your harmony

Down where the river bends, that's where you're waiting You are the reason I'm making these tracks in the snow There's a box in my hands as I go Wrapped up in scarlet and gold For you (2x)

Down where the river bends, nobodies waiting
But there's still a reason for making these tracks in the snow
Down at the end of the road
I'll clear a place in the snow
Leave this box wrapped in scarlet and gold
For you (2x)
