

Brand New

The Clarks

Man I'm goin home tonight want to see that full moonlight A million roads lead out of here Success and failure, happiness and fear But I'll find my own way back, across that railroad track Like a baby at your breast In your arms I'm at my best I said hello C'mon let's go

I been goin back and forth One day south the next day north This road that I've been traveling is littered with confusion, doubt and sin But I'll find my own way home, tonight I stand alone Like a lover in your arms Full of promise, full of charms I said hello C'mon let's go

Honey dance for me nice and slow Sing it darling way down deep and low C'mon kiss me once again Be my lover, be my very best friend Do do do do do do do We're gonna feel brand new
