

Goodbye

The Clarks

She burns his evil heart with her evil eye
She gets her wicked way with her wicked smile
She takes him by the hand and leads him to the door
It's not what he came here for

He takes her to the gate and he says goodbye
He walks the streets alone and he wonders why
He takes her by the hand and leads her to the floor
It's not what she came here for
It's not what she's looking for

Goodbye she wonders why
She says what did I do what can I do
I don't know what to say
I just don't want to say

Goodbye
It makes her cry
He says it's got nothing to do to do with you
Why she wonders why
She says I'll leave you alone
I'll leave you alone
Try they give it one more try
She's on the floor he's out the door
Out of sight, out of mind

You grew up in a sheltered world
Where money meant a lot
Your mother was a faker
Your parents always fought
The values they meant more
Before when I look at your place
Your hair it cost a hundred dollars
And there's shit all over your face

Out of sight out of mind
Too much money too much time
Out of sight out of mind
Too much money too much time

The stories that we used to tell of How we'd beg and borrow
I hear your son is screaming pop
Would you buy me a car tomorrow
They sued the principal today
For putting sister in her place
But all she sees is a reflection
And the razors in her face

Out of sight out of mind
Too much money too much time
Out of sight out of mind

Too much money too much there's too much time
Your father thought he sheltered you
And kept you from temptation
Now you watch a lot of tv

And you tell him that you hate him

Out of sight out of mind
Too much money too much time
Out of sight out of mind
Too much money too much time
Out of sight out of mind
Too much money too much time
Out of sight out of mind
Too much money too much time
Out of sight out of mind
