It's a fab protective for that type of a girl but everybody knows that she uses it well it's the therapeutic structure I can use at will but I don't think it fits my b.d. drill

Sitting in a carriage of a bakerloo erotica my pocket got a packet for you advert on the escalator on my way home I don't need no skin flicks, I wanna be alone

I didn't want to hold you I didn't want to use you protex, protex blue all I wanna do
