

City of Orphans

The Classic Crime

Jenny left from Idaho and made her home in Capitol Hill
In a 300 square foot studio above a coffee shop near the Broadway Grill
And every night she walks the block to trade in her time for cheap thrills
And everyone she meets is cool
But just out of reach and it kills
She used to spend her nights by firelight and singing to the stars
Now she