

Element of Hate

The Claymore

I hate you
The sins of your fathers are carved in stone
I'm your god
The god of all anger, corruption's my name

Follow me into the night
You will die, so watch your life

'cause I'm the element of hate,
The messenger of life, the throne of babylon
'cause I'm the sinner in the dark,
The fire in your mind, the element of hate

Trust in me
My machines will kill you, death without pain
Die for me
My heart's full of hate and I will live forever

Follow me into the night...

'cause I'm the element of hate...

Pray to me
The altars of madness are burning in hell
God of hate
My demons are waiting to brake down the walls

Follow me into the night...

'cause I'm the element of hate...
