

Silent Scorn

The Claymore

You can't deny what you've done
Never ending scorn
Brutality comes closer
And your web of lies is torn

I'm out of sight so you can't
See me from afar
Watching you in silence
While you're losing your own war

In the darkness, in the night
I'm looking for you, a soundless night
In the edge of reality and dreams
I'm waiting in the silence of cruel insanity

Hey, can you hear me?!
In disguise you see me smiling
Hey, I wait for an answer!
I am here to take revenge on you

My tortured soul is crying out your name
So feel my bullets deep in your frozen veins

Hey, can you hear me?!
In disguise you see me smiling
Hey, I wait for an answer!
I am here to take revenge on you
