

Soulseeker

The Claymore

I am surrounded by sadness and pain
Outside in the distance , outside in the rain
I feel the touch of the weakness inside
The fear is my guidance , the dark light shines so bright

I'm caught in an act of illusion and fear
I want to break out and the ending is near
Reduced to my senses , no chance for a choice
I 'm getting the order from my inner voice

I am confused
Losing myself

Follow the blind in the night
Finding a way to the light
Follow the blind in the night
Finding a place for me

I'm watching the world , deep inside of my mind
The quest is not over , so follow the blind
Forever and ever , I'm searching my soul
I'm passing the border , to find my control

I am confused
Losing my soul

Follow the blind in the night
Finding a way to the light
Follow the blind in the night
Finding a place for me

I feel the strength
I am reborn

Follow the blind in the night
Finding a way to the light
Follow the blind in the night
Finding a place for me
