The Angel's Assassination

The Claymore

Angel's sons, fall from grace Celebrate their sins Rebel's reign, in the sky Spread their wings tonight This is the time, when the angels are falling They are the victims of their greed This is the place, where justice is dying Kingdom of heaven is lost (all is lost) Have you ever seen - the angel's assassination? Have you ever seen - the truth in their eyes? Have you ever seen - the fire was burning higher? Have you ever seen - the flames in their eyes? Flaming tongues, evil minds Fall into decay Have you ever seen - the angel's assassination? Have you ever seen - the truth in their eyes? Have you ever seen - the fire was burning higher? Have you ever seen - the flames in their eyes? Grief of god, satans birth Eternal war begins This is the time, when the angels are craving They are the victims of greed Have you ever seen - the angel's assassination? Have you ever seen - the truth in their eyes? Have you ever seen - the fire was burning higher? Have you ever seen - the flames in their eyes? Have you ever seen? Have you ever dream? Have you ever seen? Wouldn't you agree? (With their lies)
