The Clinks

So, the masquerade
Cannot be played upon the stage
You gotta go
There's too much cryin'
I've been better than before
But I'm dying

You go, you go, you go, you know
You know it's not working
You try, you try, you try, you try
To keep yourself out of it
You know, you know, you know, you go
It's not working
You try, you try, you try, you try
But you're falling over

You cheat and you lie
