Nobody Else Will

The Cliks

If not for you, there would be So little of this part of me
If not for you, the skies above would not be blue or even have enough

I see the skies, I see your eyes
I see the cars all passing by I'm staying here, with you
my dear

If not for you, there would be a bigger hole inside of me If not for you, the stars above would not be new or try to carry love

I see the skies, I see your eyes
I see the cars all passing by
I'm staying here, with you
my dear
I'm telling you the honest truth

So don't let me down again
I just want to be a good man Don't let me down again
I just want to be your best friend And I'll be there for you in darkest nights

When love is lying still I'll be there for you to hold you tight be there for you when nobody else will

Oooh. Nobody else will

I see the skies I see you eyes
I see the cars all passing by
