

Soul Back Driver

The Clik

Sould Back driver
Take my soul back
where'd you put it?
I don't know 'cuz I lost my way

Soul back driver
Take my heart in pieces
You are so blessed to be my prey

Running thunder
Pulling over Hiding under

Soul back driver
Take my soul back where you found my head in the wind
you win

You broke spirit
to become, I fear it
You are breakin in sweat
Regret

And if you see,
and if you see me
DON't make believe that I am leacing
I walked away,
I walked away bare
You never said I wouldn't have
it back

Today I have to fully come to terms with this
You don't exist

Soul Back Driver
Soul Back Driver
Soul Back Driver, driver, Yeah
