

Dracula Has Risen From The Grave

The Coffinshakers

Pale face, has never touched the sun
Murder in my mind
I loath the daylight and all it has spawn
I love to be unkind

I walk the streets at night
In the shadows, out of sight
To seek my victims, come alive
In the city, in the neon lights

When they see me comin'
You'll always hear them say
Dracula has risen from the grave

No, I ain't no vampire
I ain't even no undead
I just love the taste of blood
It just gets to my head

Full moon, I feel you gettin' near
You know you should beware
They say I'm evil to the bone
And I think that judgement's fair

When they see me comin'
You'll always hear them say
Dracula has risen from the grave
