

Hate To See You Go

The Color Fred

Many are the hours I lie awake
Trash the room in vain
Try to waste the energy I never spend on you
Lying on this bed, never touch, not right now
If I'm over this by morning
That's a future I can't see

Well I'm gonna hate to see you go
But I've been impossible, I know
Yeah I'm gonna hate to see you go
But I know you're just waiting

When you're young you decide
What you can and cannot take
Promises that you made
That you wish you wouldn't break
This was over, long before we met
This was over, long before

Well I'm gonna hate to see you go
But I've been impossible, I know
Yeah I'm gonna hate to see you go
But I know you're just waiting

See, you are waiting
This was over long before we met
See, you are waiting
This was over long before we met
See, you are waiting
See, you are waiting now

Well I'm gonna hate to see you go
But I've been impossible, I know
I'm gonna hate to see you go
But you will
Oh, you will

Many are the hours I lie awake

I'm gonna hate to see you go, oh oh

This was over long before we met
