

Say You Need Me

The Colourist

I can't say anything,
It's only what you want,
You're taking everything from me when you were all I need

It's always greener, hey,
When it's working out just fine
You say you need me still,
But it's just a waste of time

Why are you sitting down, when everybody's moving around
Why are you sitting down, when everybody's moving around

Time is slipping through my fingers,
If I'm not living then I'm losing, losing,
The sound of every second passing,
Counts down the nights we shared
Give it up, leave it all behind

Nothing is getting through,
Everything just seems too late
There's only so much you can do
To get back in my way
It's all this living, hey,
Someone's always in a bind
You can't be certain what, you want to leave behind

Why are you sitting down, when everybody's moving around
Why are you sitting down, when everybody's moving around

Time is slipping through my fingers,
If I'm not living then I'm losing, losing,
The sound of every second passing,
Counts down the nights we shared
Give it up, leave it all behind

This isn't easy,
When you say you need me

My legs want to move but don't know how
With a heavy head, I feel weighed down
Then my heart starts racing through the crowd
I heard your voice it was calling out
And you said, and you said

Why are you sitting down, when everybody's moving around
Why are you sitting down, when everybody's moving around

Time is slipping through my fingers,
If I'm not living then I'm losing, losing,
The sound of every second passing,
Counts down the nights we shared
Give it up, leave it all behind

Time is slipping through my fingers,
If I'm not living then I'm losing, losing,
The sound of every second passing,

Counts down the nights we shared
Give it up, leave it all behind

This isn't easy,
When you say you need me

Say you need me
Say you need me
Say you need me
Say you need me
Say you need me
