

The Further

The Colourist

There's a thickness
Rolling into thoughts of grey and you don't know what you're use to

Restless thoughts now
Sleep them off now
Make sure the trouble's gone or else you're gonna find out

Dreams are getting truly oh
They're never gonna be revoked
From the center of what's factual
The room fills up with something cold

Oh tell me what I'm lost in, lost in, lost in Never kind of warning
(look around there's something more)
Tell me what I'm lost in, lost in, lost in Never felt a feeling
(look around there's something more)

See your hands squeeze
While my lungs breathe
Keep the gaze on what has made my heart freeze
Hands on your chest
Feel it pressing
Never understood why it kept progressing

Dreams are getting truly oh
They're never gonna be revoked
From the center of what's factual
The room fills up with something cold

Oh tell me what I'm lost in, lost in, lost in
Never kind of warning
(look around there's something more)
Tell me what I'm lost in, lost in, lost in
Never felt a feeling
(look around there's something more) [X2]
