

Tomorrow

The Communards

Like the knife of a thief that's held close to the throat

I'm threatened by you and the cruel way you gloat

You once turned me on now it all seems so remote.

You broke me in pieces
you cherished each blow

The harder you hit me
the stronger I grow

I'll leave you tomorrow take my pride and

You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul

I've had all I can take.
You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul

I've had all I can take.

I'm leaving tomorrow
I'm leaving tomorrow

I'm leaving
I've had all I can take.

Don't tell me you love me
your tears are too late

Your trap was deception
and I took the bait

The animal in you
you can't keep at bay.
I'm not your possession to treat as you wish

Your silence will slowly destroy you each day

I'm leavincl tomorrow
my love for life is great.

You may break the skin but you can t kill the soul
You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul

I'm leaving tomorrow
I'm leaving tomorrow

I'm leaving
yes
I'm leaving!

You broke me in pieces

you cherished each blow

You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul

You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul

I'm leaving tomorrow

I'm leaving tomorrow

You may break the skin but you can't kill the soul
