

New Friend

The Concretes

I called you, she answered.
got strangled on the way. she gave you the phone, said it was for you.
didnt know, didnt know, didnt know, didnt know you got yourself a new friend.
if you need a friend
you can call me again
I wont call you cause of your new friend it's harder than I thought being on my own remember you said you needed me there it's too late, it's too late, too late, too late and you got yourself a new friend
if you need a friend
you can call me again
