

Ooh La La

The Concretes

I had me an aim and I had me a token
To deliver this letter sealed
Now I'm halfway through this trek, halfway through this trek
Secrets with me won't stay sealed for long
If you hand me the truth I'll spread the news
I'll spread the news

Suddenly a light came on
And it shone me a hole right through my bone
And there I could see it all and there I saw the shore

High time for me to make up my mind after what I've seen Then I heard a bell strike five Heard a bell strike five

Ooh la la...
