Ooh La La

The Concretes

I had me an aim and I had me a token To deliver this letter sealed Now I'm halfway through this trek, halfway through this trek Secrets with me won't stay sealed for long If you hand me the truth I'll spead the news I'll spread the news

Suddenly a light came on And it shone me a hole right through my bone And there I could see it all and there I saw the shore

High time for me to make up my mind after what I've seen Then I heard a bell strike five Heard a bell strike five

Ooh la la...
