

Teen Love

The Concretes

I hope everything's alright with you
Maybe I should go and see about you
Collect some love, if you don't mind
Collect some love, if you don't mind, no

My heart it grows

I smile a second, then it's gone
When I realize I'm all alone
Why is it so hard? No, I won't cry
Why is it so hard? No, I won't cry

My heart it grows

Fallin'
Fallin' in
I've fall'n in love with you

Carry me home, the night is dark and long
I think I'm done with all the people taking part
So I move much closer, I don't mind
And I leave a mark on your face, I don't mind, no

My heart it grows

Fallin'
Fallin' in
I've fall'n in love with you

Fallin'
Fallin' in
I've fall'n in love with you
