

Your Call

The Concretes

As I walk in you get up to leave,
You head straight for the door
Is it because what happened between us
I liked it better before

My comment really wasn't that funny
You were never polite
I recall your laughter as sweeter
I guess those things can change overnight

Forgive me, I take it back
Forgive me, I'd take it all back if I could

I call you, hang up
I call you, hang up
I call you, hang up
I call you, hang up

So many things came out bad
I didn't mean them at all
I regret not telling you sooner
On the other hand you never called

Believe me I'd take it back
Believe me I'd take it all back if I could

Moments you wish never happened
Other you keep for the rain
Forget that they'll be forgotten
Running through you like a train

Believe me I'd go back
Believe I'd go all the way back if you would

Call me I'll hang up
Call me a hang up
Call me, hang up
