

Dreamin'

The Cool Kids

I was asleep in the clouds before I fell to the ground
But on the way down it was takin a while
Then I seen this door;
It was cracked so I openned it more and more,
Then I walked inside of it

I heard it shut followed by a lock
Now I'm locked in a box
And I'm tryna get out
So door man door man where art thou?
I'm like Door man door man let me out

Door man door man I don't know how
If you don't open this door I'm kickin it down
Seen the glimmer of his key that was attached to a ring
On his head was a hat that was actually green
Actually green?
I say that because this actually a dream
Not really but it seems to be

So I describe the scene, Yo
But anyway the door man let me out of the box
I ran and shook his hand right before I bounced
And then I look again
And I notice that I stand alone
Door man disappeared like a phantom, gone

So I'm runnin again
I don't know what I'm chasing but I'm running again
Got to pick up my pace if I'm ever gonna make it to her in time
So I guess that's what I'm chasing

I think your dreamin
Just keep runnin
Don't you let me go again

Now I'm moving through the galaxy
Anythings possibly when spaceships follow me
And the clocks tickin so I ain't really got much time to be thinking where s he could be
Then he approached me
The door man again, he held out his hand
So I grabbed it and walked with him the distance
He showed me old pictures of things I was missing
Things I took for-granted back when I had them
Ex girlfriend I don't remember what happened
Love of my life one second and then vanished

Then it all started to make sense
I had to backtrack for a second and think
What do these things have pertaining to me?
And with that in mind I developed the link
The clouds I fell from;
The box I was trapped in
It turns out it was really a casket
The girl I was chasing was the girl I was last with
In the car right before we crashed it

Prom night, 06, everything had gone right
Before a drunk driver hit us from the blind side

Next thing I knew everything had turned white
I can't see
I try to open my eyes but my vision is mad blurry
I'm layin on the stretcher an I see her next to me
I grab her hand to tell her to please forgive me
I look her in the eyes
Tears lye on her cheek
As we lay there silent she speaks
We can be together if you follow me

I think your dreamin
Just keep runnin
Don't you let me go agian
