The Cool Kids

Yeah
It's the gold chain post main yo chain's foil
Yo bitch spoiled but don't remain loyal
Boy I get a whiff of blood in the water when I sniff
Out a lick and I'm locked on, Gucci ghost rain coat
Trouble was my middle name always in trouble
My pots had to bubble outside in the huddle
With my, with my main man
We don't have no reason to do this shit
We ain't have no reason to be misfits
It was cold, it was freezing out in Richton
It was cold, it was freezing in the District
The same city where I used to run amok at
Now I come back and spend a buck at (Buck buck buck buck)
Now let me show you how it look
I stood over the same stove and cook
(Cook cook cook cook)
While I just let it marinate
They think they're playing the same game
But I swear they ain't

Woah, hold on, something, going
Uh, comma, phones, credit card
Call it, save it then call it
See me with the number then rate then call it

Woah, hold on, something, going
Uh, comma, phones, credit card
Call it, save it then call it
See me with the number then save just call me

Jump off the porch to a Porsche
Trying to stay away from the courts
AirMax on my force, Bojack not the horse
And the trap got the works, take it back to the stores
Off the same plate, but we don't share forks
My nigga this the gospel so we won't miss words
We wild out, birds fly south a long route
How loud is the bag? If it's Gucci what's the tag?
If you knew me I was looping up the jazz bout the block
That's how you put a ton of Benz in the box
Making sure my baby catch a tan where it's hot
You know what I'm about and if we cool then watch your mouth
In the pocket of the bounce put a zone in a zono
A zip is a ounce we can smell it if it's off
Collect calls nah dog this say cell phones
And all of them flip, don't call me for shit

Woah, hold on, something, going
Uh, comma, phones, credit card
Call it, save it then call it
See me with the number then rate then call it

Woah, hold on, something, going
Uh, comma, phones, credit card
Call it, save it then call it

See me with the number then save just call me

See me with the number then save just call me
