

Being Somebody Else

The Coral

Something, something's happening to me
Someone, someone I've got to be

Feels like I was someone else
Don't you know, you only lose yourself
Being somebody else
Being somebody else

Shadows, shadows on the wall
Night cry, all around me it calls

Feels like I was someone else
Don't you know, you only lose yourself
Being somebody else
Being somebody else

Something, something's happening to me
Magic, it's as black as the sea

Feels like I was someone else
Now I know, you only lose yourself
Being somebody else
Being somebody else
Being somebody else
Being somebody else

Being somebody else
Being somebody else
