

Cripples Crown

The Coral

An open door on the thirteenth floor
Conspiracy in the corridors
I'll take you down
Down to Cripples Crown
Should you say, what can you do?
Satellites, I'm watching you
I'll take you down
Down to Cripples Crown
I'll take you down
Down to Cripples Crown

At this dark hour, who'll be there?

Open the door if you dare
Venus Flytrap on the stairs
I'll take you down
Down to Cripples Crown

There'll be no time, there'll be no tears
The elevator disappears
I'll take you down
Down to Cripples Crown
I'll take you down
Down to Cripples Crown

Cripples Crown
Cripples Crown
Cripples Crown
Cripples Crown
