Dressed Like a Cow

The Coral

Well I went to a movie with a girl last night Dressed like a cow but she looked so fine Bought my ticket just in time Sat right up close like she was mine

But then it seemed so sad
I never felt that bad
But then I caught her eye
An innocence that tell's no lie

I came into the light and out of the dark It turns out that I was really a calf Oh I've been a fool for oh so long But how can all of theses people be wrong

But then it seemed so sad
I never felt that bad
But then I caught her eye
An innocence that tell's no lie

But then it seemed so sad
I never felt that bad
But then I caught her eye
An innocence that tell's no lie

Yeah
