

Falling All Around You

The Coral

A kiss
I'll take it with me now
I've heard the story's out
All over town

I laugh
And fall down to my knees
Like paper tumbling
Through the streets

In the morning
When the sun will rise
And the day is new

I'm falling all around you...
I'm falling all around you...

The sheets
Where you lay with me love
In the quiet hours
Before dawn

You said
I'm like a sinking stone
But some stories
Should not be told

At the dawning
When the seagull flies
And the day is new

I'm falling all around you...
I'm falling all around you...

In the morning
When the sun will rise
And the day is new

I'm falling all around you...
I'm falling all around you...
I'm falling all around you...
I'm falling all around you...
...
