

Green Is the Colour

The Coral

Green is the colour
Of her eyes...

I see her drifting
In her sleep
Through the trees

The forest darker
Than the whispers
In my dreams

Jealously she hides
Her smile
Looks into the endless skies
And green is the colour
Of her eyes...
Green is the colour
Of her eyes...

I hear her talking
With the leaves
In the dark

The crooked branches
Hanging heavy
In her heart

Jealously she hides
Her smile
Looks into the endless skies

And green is the colour
Of her eyes...
Green is the colour
Of her eyes...

Green is the colour
When I look in her eyes

A stare that will cut you
Like a knife
Through these starry skies

Green is the colour
Of her eyes...
Green is the colour
Of her eyes...
Green is the colour
Of her eyes...
...
