

Keep Me Company

The Coral

Over the hill and far away
Down the valley and past the lake
Through the trees beneath the shade
In this place that's where I'll wait

For you
To keep me company
Like an old memory

An hour or two has just flown by
Took the sun out of the sky
Stained glass shadows they have been cast
A Ghostly gaze forgets my past

But you
Can keep me company
Like an old memory

Oh no, here it comes again
Oh no, here it comes again
Can't stop the pain

I've come so far I can't get home
There's no one there, am I alone?
Here and now I must confess
This is potential loneliness
