

Rebecca You

The Coral

Stay by my side
Let me wander
Through the darkness of your eyes

The moon it comes
And rises like a ghost
Upon the tide
of your sweet smile

And when you hide
Where do you hide?
What do you do?
Rebecca, you

You're out of reach
You've built a wall around you
I can't breach
There's no way through
Rebecca, you

Catch a dream
Of the silence
On the pathways of my mind

When I return
On the roads that always
Seem to lead nowhere
Will you be there?

And when you hide
Where do you hide?
What do you do?
Rebecca, you

You're out of reach
Built a wall around you
I can't breach
There's no way through
Rebecca, you
