

Secret Kiss

The Coral

Secret kiss reminding me of what I miss
Some kind of forgotten bliss
On this summers eve
Though the seasons deceive
Corrupt my honesty
You still make me believe

Is this the rock?
That you're daring me to cross
Down the river to the docks
That's where we'll meet
Where the pale light creeps
Into her majesty
You still make me believe

So far away
So far away
Can't get away
So far away
But that's alright
That's alright

Jewels and pearls
And all the wonders of the world
Mean nothing until I return
In time for tea
Sat on my settee
Lost in my memories
You still make me believe
