

Decision Time

The Coronas

21 thoughts getting older in my head,
Pros and cons, what' been said,
How I am. How I will be.
From this fence I'll never see

I don't want forever to start from now,
And you know me I get freaked out,
Too worried to smile, too stubborn to cry
I shiver. I'm scared.

'Cause I wanna hide yeah its decision time and I've been thinki ng
Things I'm not proud of. You know I'm filled with doubt but I'v e been drinking
And now the best thing to do is the last thing I'd choose.

Our love was never a barrier
Three years too young to make it work
And I'm so unsure but I cannot hide
I shiver. I'm scared

It's not that easy...
