

If I Gave Myself To Someone Else

The Coronas

If I gave myself to someone else
Would it hurt just a little less?
Maybe then I'd get some well deserved rest
If I gave myself to someone else

You chose to torture yourself
Clung on to everything I left
Let's give it a go that's what you said
Or give me something like your best

I never liked all the colours in this place
No I never liked to wait

And if I gave myself up to someone else
It might just make it easier to forget
What was said
Wouldn't mean that I love you less
And though youth is still on our side
It's just no use to me this time
If I gave myself up to someone else

I miss these corners that we found
There's certain streets I won't go down
And though these rooms still make the very same sound
I'm not sure where I should sit down

And if I gave myself up to someone else
It might just make it easier to forget
What was said
Wouldn't mean that I love you less
And though youth is still on our side
It's just no use to me this time
If I gave myself up to someone else

I never liked all the colors in this place
I never liked all the sounds the city makes
No I never liked to wait

And if I gave myself up to someone else
It might just make it easier to forget
What was said
Wouldn't that mean I love you less
And though youth is still on our side
It's just no use to me this time
If I gave myself up to someone else

If I gave myself to someone else
Would it hurt just a little less
