

The Bricklayer's Song

The Corries

Dear Sir, I write this note to you to tell you of me plight
And at the time of writing I am not a pretty sight
Me body is all black and blue, me face a deathly gray
And I write this note to say why I'm not at work today

While working on the fourteenth floor some bricks I had to clear
Now to throw them down from such a height it was not a good idea
The foreman wasn't very pleased, he bein' an awkward sod
He said I'd have to cart them down the ladders in me hod

Now clearing all these bricks by hand it was so very slow
So I hoisted up a barrel and secured the rope below
But in me haste to do the job I was too blind to see That a barrel full of building bricks was heavier than me

And So when I untied the rope the barrel fell like lead
And clinging tightly to the rope I started up instead Well, I shot up like a rocket 'til to my dismay I found That halfway up I met the bloody barrel coming down

Well, the barrel broke me shoulder as to the ground it sped
And when I reached the top I banged the pulley with me head
But I Clung On Tightly numb With Shock From This Allmighty Blow
While The Barrel Spilled Out Half Its Bricks Some 14
Floors Below

Now, when these bricks had fallen from the barrel to the floor
I then outweighed the barrel and so started down once more Still clinging tightly to the rope I sped towards the ground
And I landed on the broken bricks that were all scattered round

Now The Force Of This Collision Halfway Down The Office
Block
Caused Multiple Abrations And A Nasty Case Of Shock
But I Clung On Tightly To The Rope As I Fell Towards The Ground
And I Landed On The Broken BRicks The Barrell Had Scattered Round

Now As I Lay There On The GROUND I Thought I'd Passed
The Worst
But The Barrel Hit The Pulley Wheel And Then The Bottom Burst

A Shower Of Bricks Rained Down On Me I Didn't Have A Hope
As I Lay There Bleeding On The Ground I Let Go The Bloody Rope

The Barrell Now Being Heavier So Started Down Once More
It Landed Right Across Me As I Lay There On The Floor
It BROKE 3 ribs And My Left Arm And I Can Only Say I Hope You`ll Understand Why I Am Not At Work Today
