

Not for Tomorrow

The Courteeners

I need some summer sun
A week away from everyone
Hey darling pessimist
I guess I'll be back again
As soon as Julie needs a friend
Hey gorgeous narcissist

This is not goodbye
(This is not goodbye)
It's just a break in proceedings
How best to describe
(How best to describe)
Something bad that's appealing

It's heavy and it's taking us down now
It's heaven and we're tasting it now
You know this is not for tomorrow
The ignorance was bliss
She scratched her ear and gave the clouds a kiss
This is not for tomorrow

I want a winter break
Get loaded, make some bad mistakes
Forget lessons that I've learnt
And I'll walk the city at night
And make it back by candlelight
And think of all the bridges that I've burnt

This is not goodbye
(This is not goodbye)
It's just a break in proceedings
How best to describe
(How best to describe)
Something bad that's appealing

It's heavy and it's taking us down now
It's heaven and we're tasting it now
You know this is not for tomorrow
The ignorance was bliss
She scratched her ear and gave the clouds a kiss
This is not for tomorrow

It's heavy and it's taking us down now
It's heaven and we're tasting it now
You know this is not for tomorrow
The ignorance was bliss
She scratched her ear and gave the clouds a kiss
This is not for tomorrow
