

Welcome To The Rave

The Courteeners

It's always darkest before dawn
They ripped the bloody roof off
Yeah you could say the place was torn
But the city's view is slanted
Do we take our dreams for granted
Are The walls falling all around us
Oh can we be saved

Because I'm feeling like I'm leaving
Everything behind and I'm feeling
Like I'm leaving everything behind
The sun is ours to find

So how do you want to live
I've got a pass for aladdin's cave
Are you coming with
I swear you 'll never look back in to the sun
It's good to have you back
Your bones are flying out
Welcome to the rave

And I'm feeling like I'm leaving
Everything behind and I'm feeling
Like I'm leaving everything behind
The sun is ours to find

And I'm feeling like I'm leaving
Everything behind in behind in behind

Woah oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh ohhhhh

Because I'm feeling like I'm leaving
Everything behind and I'm feeling
Like I'm leaving everything behind

Woah oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh ohhhhh
