

Inside Out And Upside Down (With You)

The Cramps

Baby you look good enough to eat. I'd like to go around the world with you. I'd like to lick the bottoms of your feet. And drink fizzy booze from your shoes. Inside out and upside down with you. I'd like to go around the world with you. From your bottom to your top. You're sure some lollipop. Inside out and upside down with you. Baby you know I'd knee deep in love with you. The vision and the taste of your flesh. Your candy kiss, your orange lipstick too. The nuclear fission of your love factor F. I got my pants around my ankles over you. It's frightnin' the lure of your bare trip. I'm gonna scare the pants off you too. We t your appetite 'til our loves overlap.
