

Miniskirt Blues

The Cramps

I was standing on the corner of a big windy city
When I spot a chick she was looking nitty-pretty
My knees they started shaking and my head began to jerk
I've got to know that girl in the miniskirt
I've got those going to a go-go, working on my mojo
Checking out those miniskirt blues

Well she walked up to me and said daddy what's doing
I can tell by her smile that evil was a 'brewlin'
She said the man was Jessabel, Miss Jessabel Hurt
That foxy little momma in the miniskirt
I've got those going to a go-go, working on my mojo
Checking out those miniskirt blues
Play the blues now!
Yeah, I've got those going to a go-go, working on my mojo
Checking out them miniskirt blues

Well we went to cabaret where everything was a moving
The Chick got up and she started grooving
She did the coffee grind and the double o'blurt
That tantolizing temptress in the miniskirt
I've got those going to a go-go, working on my mojo
Checking out those miniskirt blues
Yeah I've got those going to a go-go, working on my mojo
Checking out those miniskirt blues
Yeah those going to a go-go, working on my mojo
Checking out them miniskirt blues
