

I Still Do

The Cranberries

I'm not ready for this
Though I thought I would be
I can't see the future
Though I thought I could see

I don't want to leave you
Even though I have to
I don't want to love you I still do

Need some time to find myself
I wanna live within

Can I go my own way
Can I pray my own way
I don't want to leave you I need you

Am I ready for this
Did I think I would be
Can I see the future
No, I can't see
