Not Sorry

The Cranberries

Keep on looking through the window again But I'm not sorry if I do insult you I'm sad not sorry 'bout the way that things went And you'll be sorry and I'll be forsaken thee I swore I'd never feel like this again But you're so selfish you don't see what you're doing to me I keep on looking through the window again No, I'm not sorry if I insult you No, I'm not sorry if I insult you

You told me lies (And I cried, and I cried, and I cried 'Cos you lied, lied and (I cried, yes I cried, and I cried) (I cry, I cry, I cry) again I realize as (he sighed and, he sighed and) 'Cos you lied, lied and (I cried, yes I cried, yes) (I try, I try, I try) again

Keep on looking through the window again But I'm not sorry if I do insult you I'm sad not sorry 'bout the way that things went And you'll be sorry and I'll be forsaken thee I swore I'd never feel like this again But you're so selfish you don't see what you're doing to me I keep on looking through the window again No I'm not sorry if I do detest you No I'm not sorry if I do detest you
