

Raining In My Heart

The Cranberries

I've seen it all
I've seen it all today
I cried a tear
I tried to turn away

But it's raining in my heart
Every time we are apart
And the sun won't shine today
So I have to walk away
If I could fly
You know that I'd try
If I could fly
If I could fly
You know that I'd try
If I could fly
Raining in my heart
It is raining in my heart

So I'm asleep
The place where I will go
You can not come
I guess you'll never know

Still it's raining in my heart
Every time we are apart
And the sun won't shine today
So I have to walk away
If I could fly
You know that I'd try
If I could fly
If I could fly
You know that I'd try
If I could fly
Rainig in my heart
It is raining in my heart
