Flash

The Crash

Flash! Flash! Flash!

I heard your song on the radio
Who am I to resist heroes?
Saw your show in the neon lights' glow
Who am I to escape your soul control?

May your love be untrue,
There's nothing I would not do for you, for you, for why-why-
you Flash

Flash!

You rule the world with the rhythms of the night
Who am I to resist your time
Forevermore we'll remember the name of a boy without shame
It's you, it's you, it's why-why-you Flash

Flash!

Flash, sing me to the stars
Hey Flash, sing me to the stars
Flash, sing me to the stars
Hey Flash, sing me to the stars

Flash! Flash! Flash!
