

Going Out

The Crash

The darkness steals the day when
A goddess stops to take a taxi
She is going out now

Faces; unknown, exciting
Places filled with everyone
She is going out thinking:

"Bring me my love
Don't leave me out
Fill up this hollow heart with hope and comfort, final answers"

Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
La la la la la

Maybe I'll get to be your
Baby before the evening bends
Until the world ends

Oh, believe me, I'm cool and daring
She says:

"Bring me my love
Don't leave me out
Fill up this hollow heart with hope and comfort, final answers"

The feelings kill the reason
She says:

"Bring me my love
Don't leave me out
Fill up this hollow heart with hope and comfort, final answers"

Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
