The darkness steals the day when A goddess stops to take a taxi
She is going out now

Faces; unknown, exciting Places filled with everyone She is going out thinking:

"Bring me my love Don't leave me out Fill up this hollow heart with hope and comfort, final answers"

Ooh ooh ooh ooh La la la la la

Maybe I'll get to be your Baby before the evening bends Until the world ends

Oh, believe me, I'm cool and daring She says:

"Bring me my love Don't leave me out Fill up this hollow heart with hope and comfort, final answers"

The feelings kill the reason She says:

"Bring me my love Don't leave me out Fill up this hollow heart with hope and comfort, final answers"

Ooh ooh ooh ooh
