

Phoebe

The Crash

She's leaving me now
"I'm gonna let you go"
Oh yeah
Staring me down
"I'm gonna let you go", she says

She's fading me out
I thought we were meant to be
Oh yeah
Scaring me off
"I'm gonna stop right now", she says
And suddenly something is holding me down

Oh my love, Phoebe has gone away today and the rain won't stop
And I'm easily torn
I thought she would never let me go

"now the season is high. I'm gonna step right out"
Oh yeah
Follow your heart
"I'm gonna let you go", she says
And suddenly something is tearing me down

Oh my love, Phoebe has gone away today now the rain won't stop
And I'm easily torn
I thought she would never let me go
Oh yeah!

She's leaving me now
"I'm gonna let you go", she says

Phoebe has gone away today and the rain won't stop
And I'm easily torn
I thought she would never let me go
Oh yeah!

Phoebe has gone away today, now the rain won't stop
And I'm easily torn
I thought she would never let me go
