

Reasons To Sing

The Crash

You charmed me with a violin
Disarmed me like a heroine
Hey, say no more
'Cause you got me for a bargain deal
Easily, well you just smiled at me

Hey, say no more
We've got reasons to sing
Oh yeah, say no more
We've got reasons to sing
We've got reasons to sing

You traced me, took me by surprise
Amazed me on a lonely night
I'll say no more
'Cause I got you on a pony ride
I got you into my only life

Hey, say no more
We've got reasons to sing
Oh yeah, say no more
We've got reasons to sing
I've got reasons to sing

For you
For the one who could become the only one
For the one who could become the only one
Hey, you're the one who could become the only one

Say no more
I've got reasons to sing
You've got reasons to sing
We've got reasons to sing

Hey, say no more
We've got reasons to sing
Oh yeah, say no more
We've got reasons to sing
We've got reasons to sing
