

Creatures Of The Night

The Creepshow

I died long ago a legend became of my story
A cold blood thirsty creature who roams in the night
It was long ago when I abandoned my sweetheart
I'll catch her again give her eternal death from a bite

I am a creature of the night!
Lurking through the cemetery
No mortal soul will ever catch me

Hiding in hell I feel through the glistening water
On this moonlit night I carry her deep through the swamp
My mutated heart surrounds her for she is my darling
I'll never surrender the beauty that lies in my arms

I am a creature of the night!
Seeping through the blackened water
Listen to the moonlight whisper

Darkness our disguise, we can see what's going through your mind
Breathing our demise, we can see the terror in your eyes...

We are the creatures of the night!
We're all living in eternal hell
We're all bound eternally to hell
