

See You In Hell

The Creepshow

Best to watch out 'cause you're falling from grace.
From a figurehead to a pawn.
But a judgement's looming to be passed on you.
I promise it won't be long.

There is no other way to avoid it.
You've been paving this road all along.
All your scheming, lack of empathy before.
Has wrote this requiem song.

You've lost all sense so keep dreaming.
I'm sure you're going to miss the point.
They'll find out you've been untrue and they'll turn on you. As sure as a flip of the coin.

We'll see you in hell. We'll see you in hell.
We are no longer under your spell.
We'll see you in hell.

Slit my throat just to fill up your coffers.
As if you ever thought that was right.
Now those selfish acts are catching up to you:
Malevolent parasite.

It's so pathetic that's all that you've left them.
A callous idol behind a facade.
Now a lifetime spent on purgatory's steps.
Won't even help you at all.

So please enjoy all your laurels.
I just don't think that I could.
Because your fates guaranteed, you can beg, you can plead.
Repentance won't do any good.

This bond forever. Fist up and yell.
If you don't like it the we'll see you in hell.
